UPPER VALLEY LAKE SUNAPEE REGIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION*:

Establishment/History:

See RSA 36:46, III. 3 members- Planning Board nominates -- appointed by Council- up to 4 year terms - Council may appoint up to 3 alternates.

The Upper Valley Lake Sunapee Regional Planning Commission is a public, nonprofit, voluntary association of towns and cities in the Upper Valley and Lake Sunapee Areas. The thirty-one member municipalities are in two states and five counties. The Commission consists of a Board of Commissioners and a professional staff. Each town or city annually appropriates funds for the Commission's operation and sends representatives (commissioners) to participate on the Board. The Board elects officers, adopts the annual work program and budget, and develops policies and positions on issues that are important to the region and its communities.

Representation is set at two commissioners for each municipality with the following exception: any member municipality with a population in excess of 10,000 is entitled to a third commissioner. A commissioner is a representative of local government who as a member of the UVLSRPC board will make policy decisions and help implement those decisions. Thus, a commissioner is both a diplomat and a local representative, serving local interests in a "commission of equals" and trying to balance local concerns with what is best for the regional community as a whole. In accordance with state law, the local Planning Board is responsible for placing names in nomination for membership for consideration by the governing body.

Charge:

The Commission's work includes transportation planning, solid waste planning, organizing and running household hazardous waste collections, working with communities to develop or amend master plans, capital improvement plans and local land use controls, assisting with the preparation of grant applications, administering grants, using Geographic Information System for mapping and traffic and land use analysis, environmental and resource planning, and assisting communities with issues that arise.

Lebanon Board Members and Duties

Duties of a commissioner include: attending regular bi-monthly meetings, usually on Wednesdays, at 6:00 p.m.; reviewing agenda materials before the monthly meeting and being ready to discuss and/or decide questions at the meeting; serving on one or more committees such as Planning, Finance, Personnel, Electronic Data Processing, etc.; being available to hear concerns of local officials, citizens and interest groups on regional problems and opportunities, and to bring these issues to the attention of the Commission, help evaluate the issue and decide on a course of action; and reporting back to the community several times during the year on the activities and decisions of the Commission.

Members:

Dan Nash	07/17-07/21
Bruce Garland	04/17-04/23
Laurel Stavis	04/17-04/23

Meeting Schedule:

Meetings generally held bi-monthly on Wednesdays at 6:00 pm.

UVLSRPC TRANSPORTATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Establishment/History:

The Transportation Advisory Committee was established as part of the New Hampshire Department of Transportation planning process and is staffed and supported by the Commission. The committee is comprised of representatives from municipalities and agents in the region. Lebanon has one City Council representative.

Charge:

The purpose of the TAC shall be to provide technical advice and policy recommendations regarding transportation planning issues to the Commission. TAC representatives are the liaison between the TAC and municipalities within the region or the agency they represent. The TAC is responsible for creating and amending the Regional Transportation Plan (RTP) to address a long-term vision for growth in the Region as it pertains to the transportation network. The RTP serves as the official Regional policy statement that helps guide statewide transportation funding decisions.

ZONING BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT:

Establishment/History:

Established per State Statute, Chapter 674 and City Charter. Consists of five regular and three alternate (added 4/19/89) members appointed for three-year terms by the Mayor and City Council. Chr. & Vice Chr. elected by vote of the Board in September of each year.

Charge:

The Zoning Board of Adjustment, pursuant to New Hampshire law, hears and decides appeals from administrative decisions, special exceptions and variances. This Board votes and decides on these applications as they conform to the City Zoning Ordinance, and other applicable City and State regulations.

Appointment to the City Zoning Board of Adjustment requires an understanding of the City Zoning Ordinance. The Zoning Administrator serves as support staff for the Zoning Board of Adjustment and must apply the ordinance as it is written and cannot waive any provisions. The Zoning Board of Adjustment may vary the provisions, but cannot amend the zoning ordinance and map. Zoning ordinances involve more unusual conditions and extenuating circumstances than other land use regulations. Zoning boards of adjustment are established to provide for the satisfactory resolution of many of these situations without burdening the courts. It is the goal of the City to have a well maintained balance of perspectives on this and all boards.
